

Party hamster and the zombie Jason with rainbow friends.

By James

Party hamster was walking in the zombie maze he used his special powers to defeat the zombies' making them dance really fast and explode. I fought the boss Zombie with my friends' Party Hamster Knox and I defeated the boss. Together we saved the people in cages which were Simon and Jedd.

So we decided to go camping so we packed to go early and we found a nice spot. I went with Knox and Jedd went with Simon. Me and Knox brought our favourite things like a motorbike and fishing rod.

At night fall Knox said "good night" to everyone. Soon we fall asleep. Not long after I fell out of bed I grabbed something it was a machete.

Meanwhile Jason, the worlds meanest human was wandering down the trail. He looked exactly a walking skeleton. "I wonder where I left my machete?" I know it's back at those kids camp.

Jason is a bad skeleton. Jason is scary I sed. But a lucky beam of light from the sky came down. Simon said, "look it's rainbow friends" It was blue and green they had a fight with Jason but rainbow friends won because they ate him up in a zip and all that was left was blood. "We thank them" I said.

THE END.
